

In Home Sales Representative- Cleveland

Backed by a company with over 100 years' experience, Infinity from Marvin is a leader in the window and door industry. We offer a premium brand of replacement windows and doors and focus on providing our customers with the best experience in the market. We are experiencing high volume growth and are looking for in home Sales Representatives for our Cleveland location, which covers the area from Sandusky to Youngstown and south to Mansfield. Our sales representatives are some of the top paid salespeople in the industry, earning in excess of $70,000 annually with some earning over 6 figures.

In Home Sales Representative Qualifications

- 1-2 years customer service, sales or marketing experience
- Driving record in good standing
- General construction knowledge recommended
- Basic knowledge of excel
- Ability to organize and follow through with details, documentation, records, requests and processes
- Must be a self-starter and have the ability to manage time independently

In Home Sales Representative Responsibilities

- Provide exemplary customer service while selling windows and doors
- Build relationships through instilling trust, superior follow up and expert consultation
- Meet deadlines, goals, quotas and customer requirements

In Home Sales Representative Benefits

- Pre-set/Pre-qualified appointments
- Comprehensive training
- High commissions and bonuses
- Vehicle and technology allowance
- Substantial growth opportunity within the company